

Regularly Scheduled Programs

Bridge Club	Mondays, 1 to 4pm
Wii for Adults	Tuesdays 9:30 to 2pm (subject to change)
Senior Drop-In	Thursdays, 9am to 11am
Scrabble	First Thursday, 1pm
Spinners & Knitters	First Friday, 6pm
Tech Tutoring	June 20 & July 18 3-4:30pm drop-in or by appointment; please call the Library
Third Thursday Book Club discussions:
Women of the Silk By Gail Tsukiyama	July 19 at 1pm
Audacity By Melanie Crowder	August 16 at 1pm

The big Annual Book Sale at the Library is August 24 to August 29.

SPECIAL THANKS:

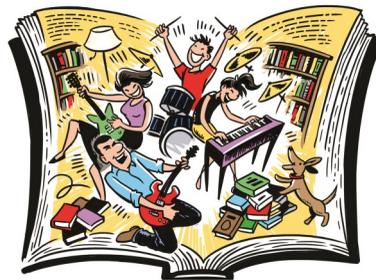

The Hampstead Public Library staff and Trustees extend a special thank you to the local businesses who donated raffle prizes and/or funds for the Adult Summer Reading Program:

Friends of the Hampstead Public Library, Atkinson Country Club, Bean Towne Coffee House, Bleu Tangerine, East Coast Lumber, J&B Butcher, Prime Butcher, Toss 'n Sauce, Windham Jewelers

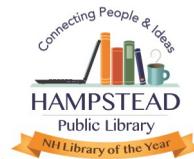

A complete and updated list of donors can be found on the website,

Summer 2018 Free Events at the Hampstead Public Library

Hampstead Public Library
9 Mary E. Clark Drive
Hampstead, NH 03841
603/329-6411
www.HampsteadLibrary.org

Libraries Rock

The Adult Summer Reading Program (SRP) theme for 2018 is "Libraries Rock" and it runs from June 20th to August 15th.

Register for the Program on or after June 20, be a part of the reading community and have fun!

High School students are welcome to participate in the Adult Program.

There are no required amounts or book topics for adults to read; however, the more you read (and audiobooks count) the more chances you have to win prizes!

Sign up for the SRP	= 1 raffle ticket
Submit a book review/rating sheet	= 1 raffle ticket
Submit a book log with 5 books read this summer	= 5 raffle tickets + $1 Library Loot
Attend an event listed in this brochure.	= 1 raffle ticket

You can fill out more than one book review or book log.

When you register for the program, you'll receive a packet with a list of events, a book review, and a book log. Additional copies of those materials are available at the Library and on the Summer Reading section of the website: www.HampsteadLibrary.org.

EVENTS

Everyone is welcome to Library events whether or not you have signed-up for the Summer Reading Program.

All events are free and open to the public.

Excel Shortcuts Class
Wednesday June 20 @ 2 PM

Learn ten shortcuts that will help make your work in Excel faster and easier. Computers are provided. Please register in advance; call today, 603/329-6411 or email circulation@HampsteadLibrary.org.

Ukulele Lesson
Saturday, June 23 @ 10 am

This instrument is among the easiest to learn and fun to play, making it a popular choice for all ages! Come away from this hands-on 45-minute workshop knowing basic chord forms and how to play simple songs. If you have a ukulele, feel free to bring it. If not, several instruments will be available for you to try. Kathi Hanson from Let's Play Music is the instructor.

Stand Out in the College Admissions Process
Tuesday June 26 @ 7 PM

Attention High School students (and parents,) it is never too soon to think about college applications and how to best present yourself. Topics covered include merit scholarships versus financial aid, extracurricular activities, powerful college essays, strategies to increase your chances for admission to selective schools, standardized tests, and recommendations. This free workshop is given by professional College Admissions Coach, Nancy Steenson. Please register in advance. Call 603/329-6411 or email jarden@HampsteadLibrary.org. You do not need to be a Hampstead resident to attend. Parents are welcome with, or without, student.

Senior Drop-In with Special Guests Thursday June 28 @ 10 am

Carol and Joseph Jesso are the special guests for the Senior Drop-In. They work for the Hampstead Rec Department planning Senior Trips and other activities for the senior community. All are welcome to come chat with the Jessos, find out what events are coming up, and share ideas. There is Senior Drop-In every Thursday at the Hampstead Public Library, from 9 am to 11 am. All seniors in the area are welcome to attend. Light breakfast refreshments are served, and there are fun activities, conversations, and monthly special guests or programs.

Movie: That Thing You Do Wednesday July 11 @ 1:30 PM

This movie recounts a fable of a pop rock band formed a year after the Beatles took America by storm in early 1964.

Tom Hanks writes, directs, and co-stars in this refreshing, big-hearted comedy that captures the overnight triumph of an American rock band in the glory days of rock'n'roll. It's the story of The Wonders, a band catapulted to fame when their hit song, "That Thing You Do," skyrockets to the top of the charts.

NH Roller Derby Rocks! Thursday July 19 @ 7 PM

Find out what fresh meat, hip whips, hot laps, and panties have to do with roller derby, the full-contact sport on skates. New Hampshire Roller Derby League members will explain the game and take your questions. If time and weather allow, they will give an outdoors demonstration.

Exploring "the Rock Pile", Mount Washington, with author Dan Szczesny Monday July 23 @ 7 PM

Dan Szczesny is a long-time journalist, author and speaker from New Hampshire. From the vaulted heights of New England's highest peak, Dan spent a year exploring the very heart of the White Mountains. But Mt. Washington—home of the world's worst weather—is more than just a Rock Pile, it's the cultural and natural soul of climbers and tourists from around the world. From car races to bird watching, from bikes to motorcycles, from the railroad to the stars to a centuries old observatory, Mt. Washington speaks to the adventurer in all of us. In Dan's book The White Mountain, he turned his veteran journalist's eye toward participating in and exploring the culture, characters and color of this remarkable place.

Hot Rocks: Everything You Always Wanted to Know About Hot Stone Massage Thursday July 26 @ 7 PM

Massage Therapist Nancy Primo tells us about the history of Hot Stone Massage, the current practices, the tools, and the benefits. She'll bring a few stones, give a demonstration, and answer questions.

Roots of Rock with Baza Thursday, August 2 @ 6:30 PM

The Rolling Stones, Eric Clapton, The Animals and The Grateful Dead have all been influenced by and paid homage to the blues and it's early creative geniuses through their recordings and interviews. This program explores the connection between rock and blues music through songs, musical structure and form. With performance by blues duo Baza.

Rock On! Stone Painting for Adults Monday August 6 @ 6:30 PM

Adults and high school students can come and paint rocks at the Library.

Make a decorative piece to put in our garden, and one to bring home. All materials supplied. Please register in advance. Call 603/329-6411 or email jarden@HampsteadLibrary.org.

Movie: Young @ Heart Wednesday August 8 @ 1:30 PM

This documentary is based on a fun-loving senior citizen's choir in Massachusetts called Young@Heart. To prepare for a show in their hometown that is only weeks away, the lovable seniors must learn a slate of new songs, ranging from James Brown to Coldplay. The group goes through a series of hilariously chaotic rehearsals, proving that hard rock can be hard work — especially when you're hard of hearing!

Music Therapy: What is it? Who can it help? How can it rock your world? Monday August 13 @ 7 PM

Elizabeth Ferguson, MT-BC, founder of Granite State Music Therapy gives an introduction to music therapy. What is it? Who can benefit? How is it used? What are the instruments used? These questions and more will be answered. Elizabeth will also give a demonstration.

Hampstead Public Library
9 Mary E. Clark Drive
Hampstead, NH 03841
603/329-6411
www.HampsteadLibrary.org

