

June 2019 Director's Report

❖ Personnel

- Rosemary Krol attended the Merri-Hill-Rock meeting in Salem.
- Rosemary Krol attended the NHLTA Annual Conference. I attended an interesting session on the RSAs for Libraries and will talk about that at the meeting.
- Rosemary Krol attended the Rotary Club event so that I could thank the members of the club for their donations.
- Devin Van Curen went to the schools to tell the kids about the Summer Reading Program.
- Devin Van Curen and Janet Arden have been busy preparing for Summer Reading. They both have interesting programs planned for the kids and adults.
- Janet Arden wrote an article about the Thrift Shop anniversary. It was published in the Carriage Towne News and she was asked by the American Library Association if they could repost it on the ilovelibraries.org website.
- Janet Arden hosted an adult craft program run by Pattie Gelinias and a friend. They charged $20 for supplies and gave half the proceeds to the Library.
- The Friends are celebrating the 60th anniversary of the thrift shop. We put up a banner behind the circulation desk for everyone to see. They got quite a bit of traffic from the Eagle Tribune article about the thrift shop.

❖ Building

- The rubber roof over the foyer was repaired.
- Tables and chairs for the Meeting Room have been delivered and installed.
- Rosemary Krol put out an RFP to get the facia replaced.
- Rosemary Krol wrote an RFP to get the louvers in the dormers repaired.
